THE RENAISSANCE OF CAN BORDOY

A glamorous intermezzo of well-being.

Between the past and the future we want to build with you.

Can Bordoy has always been a home built on the dreams of the souls who live there. Our family has already dreamt of what the next step will be. About the new story to be created and shared, about the future of travelling and the memories we will build with you. With this in mind we present Can Bordoy's new concept of glamorous leisure: a stay in our Grand House with a timetable of activities with which to elevate and exhilarate body, mind and soul.

Recover lost time by celebrating with us the new luxury: your well-being.
